

REALITY vs. MATERIALITY

I am the scion of the solution son to the evolver of evolution whose divine power emanates in elocution casting forth his revolution of absolution birthing the distribution... of sufficient grace to transfigure a race in whose face is found the trace - of the divine... if we but first remind of a time in which the mind was refined where the true SON did shine where materiality was a crime perpetrators punished with hard time sentences served in prisons of closed mind yet... a hope of parole one can find in the following line - sublimely defined: Materiality = shadow behind the back of reality...
